Kyle's Story

Continuing Care and Additional Support Needs

Jelly the cat

Hi, Kyle. What's the matter, you look sad?

Kyle

I am Jelly. I turned 21 last weekend and now I think I need to move out and live by myself. I don't want to be alone. I've lived here for six years and I love it. The thought of being by myself is scary! What if I can't manage?

Jelly the cat

Don't worry, Kyle, you aren't just suddenly going to be by yourself. You're entitled to aftercare support right up until you're 26 if you need it! There's a couple of different options you can think about around where you might want to stay.

Kyle

But what if I make the wrong decision? I haven't had time to think about it properly!

Jelly the cat

There are really lovely people called advocates, Kyle, who will be able to talk everything through with you and make sure your wishes and preferences are heard. You don't have to figure this out alone!

Kyle

Thanks, Jelly. I'm glad I can get some help.
