

Looked After at Home Review Cycle

When the compulsory supervision order (CSO) is made the reviewing officers team will be alerted immediately and the case will be allocated

2 week Looked After Review

A review will be held within 2 weeks of the order being granted.
The reviewing officer (RO) will read recent social background reports.

Child's Planning Meeting

Four weeks from the CSO being granted a child's planning meeting will be held to monitor the child's plan.
Thereafter every four weeks.

3 month Looked After Review

The review will take place 3 months of the CSO being imposed.

Child's Planning Meeting

To be 4 weeks after the 3 month review and thereafter every 4 weeks until the 6 month review.

6 month looked after review

Review to be held 6months from the CSO being implemented and thereafter 4 weekly child's planning meetings until pre hearing review.

Pre hearing review

This will schedule 4 weeks prior to the annual review hearing.