

The year in numbers

Approximately 15,927 people heard key messages formally delivered by someone from CELCIS, a whopping 85% increase from last year (8,600)

102 events, with 3,365 people attending a CELCIS conference or learning event

88% of people attending our learning and development events said they would apply their learning in practice

An increase of 49% in our Twitter followers – up from 1,341 to 1,982 by end of March 2015

43,220 unique website visitors – an increase of 33%

CELCIS engaged with 150+ organisations, including 31 of Scotland's local authorities

8,333 international website visitors – an increase of 42%

CELCIS downloadable documents continue to provide practical and valuable information for colleagues working in the sector. The top 5 digital downloads were:

1. Inform: Children and Young People Act Parts 10 and 11 – Aftercare and Continuing Care
2. Reach magazine, Autumn 2014
3. Integrating Health and Social Care in Scotland: Potential impact on children
4. Foster Care Review: Final report
5. Inform: Children and Young People Act (Part 12) – Services in relation to children at risk of becoming looked after